No delay or failure in performance by either Contractor(s) or WBEIDCL shall constitute default or give rise to any claim for damages to the extent that such delay or failure is caused by Force Majeure.

2.14.2. Effect of Force Majeure: Duty to Report

The WBEIDC or Contractor(s) (herein after referred as Affected Party) shall notify the other Party in writing of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event as soon as reasonably practicable latest by 7 days. Any notice pursuant to this sub-clause shall include full particulars of:

- The nature and extent of each Force Majeure Event;
- the estimated duration and the effect or probable effect which such Force Majeure Event is having or will have on the Affected Party's performance of its obligations under this Agreement;
- The measures which the Affected Party is taking, or proposes to take, to alleviate the impact of such Force Majeure Event; and
- Any other information relevant to the Affected Party's claim.

Each Party shall at all times use all reasonable endeavors to minimize any delay in the performance of the work as a result of Force Majeure.

For so long as the Affected Party continues to claim to be affected by such Force Majeure Event, it shall provide the other Party with weekly written reports containing information as required by this sub-clause and such other information as the other Party may reasonably request the Affected Party to provide.

2.14.3. Excuse from performance of obligations:

If the Affected Party is, wholly or partially, unable to perform its obligations because of a Force Majeure Event as informed or agreed to by the other Party, it shall be excused from performance of such of its obligations to the extent it is unable to perform on account of such Force Majeure Event provided that:

- The suspension of performance shall be of no longer duration than is reasonably required by the Force Majeure Event.
- The affected Party shall make all reasonable efforts to mitigate or limit damage to the other Party arising out of or as a result of the existence or occurrence of such Force Majeure Event and to cure the same with due diligence, and when the Affected Party is able to resume performance of its obligations, it shall give to other Party written notice to that effect and shall promptly resume performance of its obligations hereunder.

If WBEIDCL deems necessary, may determine and inform the Contractor(s) whether:

- Any extension of contract time would be given.
- Any change in the contract price along with the payment schedule

2.14.4. No Liability:

Each Party shall be liable for its own costs, losses, damages, expenses, claims, demands and proceedings relating to or arising out of occurrence or existence of any Force Majeure Event on- exercise of any right pursuant to Clause No. 2.14.

2.14.5. Force Majeure Event & Termination:

If a Force Majeure Event continues or is in the reasonable judgment of WBEIDCL and/ or Contractor(s) is likely to continue beyond a continuous period of 10 days, the Affected Parties shall enter into bonafide discussions with a view of alleviating its effects, or to agreeing upon such alternative arrangements as may be fair and reasonable, If the execution of substantially all the Works in progress is prevented for a continuous period of 30 days by reason of Force Majeure of which notice has been given, or for multiple periods which total more than 45 days due to the same total notified Force Majeure, then either party may give the other party., a notice of termination of the Contract Agreement. In this event, the termination shall take effect 7 days after the notice is given and the Contractor(s) shall cease to work & remove temporary work & contractor's equipment from the site. WBEIDCL shall waive the payment obligation of the Contractor(s) for such amount calculated by WBEIDCL considering the value of the Work done.
